

For Immediate Release
August 17, 2006

Contact: Office of Public Affairs, 703-417-8370

SIX MORE NEW EATERIES OPEN AT DULLES AIRPORT

Renovation of Food and Beverage Program Continues

Six new eateries opened at Washington Dulles International Airport this summer, part of the Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority's ongoing enhancement of the food concessions program. In the past year, a total of 30 new eateries have opened at Dulles in every concourse and the Main Terminal with 12 more new establishments on the way this year. The Airports Authority has added fresher, more made-to-order offerings and more restaurants where passengers can sit down and enjoy a full meal before their flight. Whatever the traveler's appetite, timeframe or budget, Dulles Airport now has a dining option available.

The six new eateries newly opened this summer are:

Guava and Java in the Main Terminal, baggage claim level
Fresh baked pastries, muffins and cookies; sandwiches; soups; gourmet coffees (hot or cold)
Open 24 hours with a new seating area

Cosi in Concourse A
Combination café and bar with fresh pizza, gourmet sandwiches, hearty entrees and cocktails

Gaslight Bakery in Concourse B
Fresh baked pastries, muffins and cookies; fresh made sandwiches and salads; gourmet coffees; café seating

Potbelly Sandwich Works in Concourse B
Fresh, hot made-to-order subs; chili; soup; fresh milkshakes and malt; homemade cookies

Tidewater Landing in Concourse C
Full service restaurant and bar

Moe's Grill in Concourse D
Full service restaurant and bar

For more information about the food and beverage offerings at Washington Dulles International Airport, please visit the Airports Authority website at www.mwaa.com.

# #