Airports Authority Board Elects 2007 Officers

The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority Board of Directors has re-elected Mame Reiley, Chairman, the Honorable H.R. Crawford, Vice Chairman, and re-elected Gregory Wolfe, Secretary.

Ms. Reiley, was appointed to the Board in 2002 by Governor Mark R. Warner. Ms. Reiley has served as former Governor Warner's Senior Political Advisor. Previously she headed PGI Washington, an events and communications agency. She has also served as Chief of Staff to Representative Jim Moran (D-VA) and as a staff member of the House Committee on Appropriations.

Mayor Anthony Williams appointed Mr. Crawford to the Board in 2002. He serves as Vice Chairman and Chairman of the Business Administration Committee. Mr. Crawford is the President of Crawford Edgewood Managers, Inc. a real estate firm that develops and manages residential properties throughout the District of Columbia. He has served as Assistant Secretary of Housing and Urban Development from 1973-1976 and was President and Chairman of the Greater Washington Council of Governments from 1977-1979. He represented Ward 7 in the District as a member of the Council of the District of Columbia from 1980-1992.

A 13-person Board of Directors whose members are appointed by the Governors of Virginia and Maryland, The Mayor of the District of Columbia and the President of the United States governs the Airports Authority.
